Introduction: In references by "Britain Family Names, By Barber;
 "Dictionary of English & Welsh Surnames, Bardsley,
 "English Surnames, Bardsley. We find that the name Baker came from the occupation of the men who bore it; the feminine form has become almost equally established among us, -Bagster, Baxter, or Backster being among the old forms of the old female "bakster,"

The name Baker in England is supplanted in Scotland by Baxter, and all
 Bakers may be considered of English origin.

Jane ~~Ba~~ Bkar recorded in St. Peter, Cornhill, ~~15~~ 1555 is perhaps the first time the name was taken as a genuine surname without the usual "le" preceding it. The German form is, Becher; Dutch, Becker or Beeke; and Anglo-Saxon, Becca.....

BATTLE HYMN OF THE BAKERS

Tune; Battle Hymn of the Republic.

The House of Baker cherishes traditions of the past,
With the world's great movements they have all their fortunes cast;
And when they pledge their honor they are loyal to the last.
The clan goes marching on!

Chorus, -Glory to the name of Baker!
Glory to the tribe of Baker!
Glory to our grand old family!
The clan goes marching on.

Edward, Jehn Richard, John and James were fathers of the clan,
Sir George was the ambassador and George a famous man,
We have a pride in Baker and we'll boost her all we can.
The clan goes marching on.

Cho, -

The Baker blood is mingled with the Royal bloods of old.
Each century our numbers have increased a hundred fold,
Among the world's great families our family is pure gold.
The clan goes marching on!

Cho, -

We have our dukes and peasants, sommon folks and blue-bloods, too;
We greet each other with a smile and "Cousin, howdy do!"
This goes with all the Bakers and it goes with me and you.
The clan goes marching on!

Cho, -

The Bakers fought at Concord, Gettysburg and Waterloo;
In Crusades to the Holy Land they marched as heroes do;
They died in seventy-six, and nineteen-eighteen, too,
The clan goes marching on!

Cho, -

"Fi-del co-ti-cu-la crux is the Baker motto true;
"The cross is the touchstone of faith" to Bakers not a few,
"Unto others as they would.." That's what the Bakers do.
The clan goes marching on!

Cho, -

Baker sons are loyal and daughters pure and sweet;
More noble sires and mothers you could never hope to meet,
The stories of their lives and deeds with pleasure we repeat.
The clan goes marching on!

Cho, -

If you claim the blood of Baker join the chorus of the clan,
In our Records and Reunions, --all according to our plan,
The name to highest honors boost it every way you can.
The clan goes marching on!

Cho, -

Dear friend:

I am taking the liberty to send this record directly to you, not knowing Curator if have any or not. It is not as neat as could do if made it over but it is too much for the time I feel I can spare on it.

There are still a few places and dates I am in search of to be sure it is authentic. It is in regard to the data in the introductory pages previous to the INDEX. p. ii

One is the date <sup>& place</sup> of marriage of Francis Baker and his 1st wife, Elizabeth (want her last name). He died at Lanesboro, Mass.

The other is the date and place of marriage of Nathaniel Baker and Sarah Garrison. Thought to be in Putnam County but might have been in Berkshire County.

Also full list of children of Francis and his 1st wife, Elizabeth and where born. He was on the Oblong in 1758 and in Lanesboro in 1790.

I think will write to Yarmouth and to So Dennis, Mass. and see what can find for the emigrant lived there and died there as well as some of his family. I believe some are buried at So Dennis.

Well, I am wondering how it came about that Miss Baker resigned and what she is doing. I really thought she and I might be kin but she never seemed interested.

Now I must wash the separator and so will close with all good wishes that are beginning to crowd our minds and hearts in readiness to add some more nearer the Christmastide.

Sincerely

Mrs. Sarah Huftalen

I will type these i. ii. iii. Introductory pages again in better neatness & add later on, when have more time.

NOTES ON THE FLODDER- VAN BUREN FAMILY

Kindenss of Innes Getty, Yonkers, N.Y. in letter Oct 20 1943.

"The note of the family of Van Buren states that Mary Marilda was born Apr 22 1847 with this foot-note: Harriet questions the date of her Aunt Mary's birth and we know that the date of her death as given us is incorrect. She also says that her middle name is Matilda instead of Marilda.

I have in my possession the old Van Buren Dutch cradle in which Moses Van Buren slept as a baby. Tradition is that Maessen Van Buren brought this cradle with him on his second trip to Holland.

George Gardiner, 1600-1677, was living in Aquidneck, R. Is. in 1638.
Lion Gardiner, ca 1599-1663, settled in Saybrook, Conn, and later on Gardiner's Island, Joseph Gardiner, 1601-1679, settled in Newport, R. Is.
Thomas Gardiner, 1592-1674/77, settled in Salem, Mass.

Descendants of the Gardiners of Nantucket, were among the founders of Hudson, Columbia County, N.Y.

Of the family of the mother of Moses Van Buren, and the first of the name was Jan Jansen Flodder, who came from Campen in the Province of Overysel, Holland, in 1637. On March 18 1667, Jacob Jansen Flodder and Capt. John Baker, purchased from several Mohican Indians, a large tract of land in Kinderhook, N.Y. (Consideration: 1 blanket; 1 axe; 3 hoes; 2 bars of lead; 3 handfuls of powder; 1 knife; 1 kettle). On April 15 1667, Governor Nicholls granted a patent for this land to Flodder and Baker. Jacob Jansen Flodder used the alias of Jacob Jans Gardiner, or as appears in the family records, Gardinier.

It is interesting to note that Maria (Polly) Gardinier has four descents from Jacob Jans Flodder.

- I, -Cornelis Maessen Van Buren
- II, -Marten Cornelissen Van Buren
- III, -Peter Martense Van Buren
- IV, -Marten Van Buren
- V, -Abraham Van Buren
- VI, -Martin Van Buren, President of the United States.

Do you suppose that your Baker line goes back to Capt. John Baker, who along with my ancestor, dealt so generously with the Mohican Indians? I shall try to disprove it."

BAKER SETTLEMENT
LENAWEE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Tradition

The Bakers were originally from England ;were refugees in Holland and migrated to the Colonies in early Seventeenth Century. It is believed that the Garlicks, Colegroves and Lawleys came at the same time or thereabout.

Nathaniel Baker settled in Schodack, Rensselaer County, N.Y. It is said that he married a Dutch lady who had been brought up in Connecticut. Their children were born Schodack Twp. and Nathaniel, the father, died here. He was a farmer and resided about eight miles from Albany. The County Seat at that time was Troy.

His son, Jacob Baker, Sr. married Emily Garlick and their two oldest children were born at Schodack. In 1817 he purchased land at Camden, Oneida Co., N.Y. and two or three children were born here. He moved in 1823 to Oakland Co., Mich. and five or six children were born there. In 1834 the family settled in Seneca Twp., Senawee Co., Mich. where the two youngest children were born. They were twins, one died infancy. Their oldest sister, Sarah, named them. She was mad when the babies came and her father would have her go in the room and say, "Good morning, Mother," and look at the babies. She said she was tired doing big washings and taking care of babies and she did not like to tend the bar in her father's tavern in Oakland County when they lived there.

Jacob and Emily G Baker Home in Seneca.

The original Baker homestead is about six and a half miles NW of Morenci, Mich. Go north past the two cemeteries and turn left at the first corner ; follow this road and you will come to the original Horace Garlick home that joined his father brother-in-law's farm at the east. The Garlick home is on the north side of the road after turning west at first corner after passing a couple of creeks. Go east from Garlick's about a mile or so until come to the first corner and a half mile north on the west side of the road is the original Jacob Baker buildings, the house of which is still used as a dwelling (1942). It is stuccoed gray.

West of the original Horace Garlick home is the home of his daughter, Lucy Ann who married Robert Simms and is where the tragedy of herself and four little children occurred.

Burial

Jacob and Emily Garlick Baker were first buried on the old farm near Baen Creek but the waters rising made it imperative to remove them to the Morenci cemetery and here their stones may be seen and are in splendid condition. Old Cemetery on east side of the road leading out of Morenci.

Baker Settlement (That is Seneca)

p.39. Jacob Baker entered land on Section 30 on the tenth day of March 1834, and soon after came with his family and commenced a settlement, The Baker Settlement in the Northwest corner of Town 8 south, two east (Seneca). Horace Garlick and Arnold Coomer accompanied ~~him~~ Mr. Baker to the wilderness. Garlick was married but Coomer was a single man. They proceeded at once to build a log house. Coomer had the bark to peel for the roof and he pressed the Indians into the service to assist him.

The house was the usual log cabin of the early settler, -puncheon floor, bark roof, and gables, small windows holes, and pannelless doors. The doors were of the kind called batten doors but the batten was a piece of timber a little longer than the width of the door and larger at one end than at the other; the large end projected beyond the door, and was bored to serve as a part of the hinge. The boards were fastened to the battens by wooden pins or by nails, as the necessity or convenience of the builder required.

During the year 1834, the following persons purchased land in Towns 8 & 9 south, 2 east: Joseph Griffin, June 2nd. Sec. 1. Wm. Baker, Apr 4th. Sec 13; Thomas Hawley, Oct 28th. Sections 9, 10 and 18 on the same day.

The old Indian trail from Jonesville to Maumee lay through this township, and just below where Morenci now stands was an old burying ground.

Nov 1st. Miles Baker (1834). Sec 9, built a house. Sections 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are now in the state of Ohio. Land looking land locating was the principal business that year; there were land centers from which land explorations usually started. From Canandaigua the northern part of Medina, southern township of Wright were reached. While Jacob Baker's house in Seneca was the point from which Southwestern Seneca, southern Medina, Royalton and Chesterfield, and Gorham, Ohio, were explored.

Arnold Coomer and Horace Garlick were guides. (Note: Here follows an exciting story of the race of Goss and Wolwroth (Woodworth?) for certain sections of land, -too long to copy but would like the entire story as well as the entire book. sgh).

Dr Chappell came in 1844 and is still in practice, 1876. (Note: Dr Cahppell was still practicing in 1883-84,) Canandaigua and Medina were rivals. Medina moved a frame building from Canandaigua; 20 men and 15 yoke of oxen, and axes. Shoes were placed under it, the oxen hitched to it and 'whoa, haw, get up' bright and away the house went toward Medina, 1836. They cut a road through the woods north of the creek; the route they were compelled to take to avoid the bends in the creek made the road two miles long, and the house was two days in transit; but at least Medina had one frame building and Canandaigua had none.

Another incident; itinerant tree vender healed 50 trees in 1836 in Cavender's field, frozen in hard. Medina men were told by Burns Cavender that an Indian's body had been thrown in and covered with brush... They secretly investigated and unearthed only to be the laughing stock of Canandaigua.

Saxton B. Bagley, Twp. Clerk, Adams Twp. 1857-1861 included O.B. Coffin, voter in Jefferson Twp. 1837. Township first named Florida was a part of Moscow Twp. afterwards Adams, called Florida until 1849, then Jefferson. Chas. E. Luce 1860. Henry F. Sutton and many more 1859--Suprvisor.

July 4th 1828, Independence Day was celebrated in the Village of Adrian near where W. S. Wilcox's store now stands. A National salute was fired, - a blacksmith's anvil having been prepared for that purpose... Addison Comstock read the Declaration of Independence and Dr C N Ormsby delivered the oration, which ended, the Marshall of the Day, Noah Horton, formed the procession and marched through the streets fringed with hazel brush to the residence of A. J. Comstock where the ladies of the village had prepared dinner. Mr. Norton and Eleazer Baker had one pair of shoes between them, and they belonged to Baker. A barefoot marshall would never do, so Norton wore the shoes and Baker stayed at home...

Shakes, that is shingles, were made by quartering a log (oak); then cut off small corner; then take a rive and drive through lengthwise from log pieces 30 inches in length. These were used as shingles. All same thickness and as wide as could be cut from out a large or small tree. (Note: a rive resembles a trisquare in shape, sgh)

A typical log house: puncheon floor, bark roof and gables, two small window holes, pannelles doors, etc, p. 39. Stick and mud chimney, floors of split hewn bass wood. Shakes were rived out of oak timber; width varying in length - according to which was riven first or last out of the bolt. The shakes were laid on flattened poles to the rafters and held in place by other poles, the poles underneath and top, being fastened together with hickory or blue beech withes... Bull plow. Parts of it were called, "chip", - a round piece dressed on two sides at right angles so as to present a smooth side on the bottom and to the land, the forward end was formed to fit into the share the other mortised to fit the handle. "Share", - resembles forward part of an iron plow, including the point and forward portions of mouldboard and landslide.

Mouldboard. - rived out of a piece of timber having the proper wind. ~~xxxxxx~~
 Beam, - wood, little larger than cultivator beam. A single bolt had a flattened head let into the bottom of the "chip", and had a nut at its flattened end, on top of the beam, fastened the "chip" and "beam" forward while the handle, - only one-fitting into the tenant of the beam and into the mortise of the "chip" fastened the "beam" to the "chip" behind. The rectangular sides of the "chip" measuring not more than two inches, formed the bottom & landslides. The "share" was of wrought iron, & was sharpened by being drawn out at a Smith's forge. NOTE: Nathaniel Horace Baker son of Jacob and Emily Garlick Baker has the old family Bible. He said it was appraised at one dollar and he bought it from the estate. He said it was all he had . I copied the record from it while visiting there in 1890.

Two small pieces of paper that fitted together formed the leaf of a little old book; soft as cloth, and yellowed with age . Evidently had been torn from the fly leaf of some old book and upon which was written in quaint old style the following memo:

"Sarah Baker's Book .

In those days there were neither stamps nor envelopes. The letter sheet (in this instance) was 8 by 10 inches in folio and folded to 3 by 5 1/2 inches. First turn down top and bottom and then fold each side; tucking one into the other and placing a thin red wafer between and pressing together sealed it. Wafer was 1/2 inch in diameter.

On the blank side of this improvised enclosure was written in brown ink very plain and clear the address which is as follows:

"Baker Esq. Bean Creek, Near the Indian Road-Lenawee County,
Michigan Territory."

There were also marks supposedly made by the postman. One of these was the word, "PAID" followed by a flourish of pen. The other was a circle with "ALBANY FEB 16". These were in red (faded).

WEDDING
FRAZER-HERSEY

39

Miss Corry Hersey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hersey of Coffins Grove, and Mr. John A. Frazer were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday afternoon, March 8 at two o'clock. Guests began arriving at an early hour and the spacious rooms of the once famous inn of Henry Baker were filled with a happy throng of relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

At the appointed hour and to the strains of a March rendered by Miss Helen Granger, the contracting parties took their places beneath a clover-leaf of smilax of no mean proportion where the nuptial knot was tied by the ring ceremony performed by Rev. H. W. Tuttle.

The bride was gowned in royal purple with white trimmings and carried roses, the groom in conventional black.

Congratulations and good wishes continued until all had been seated at tables bountifully spread with viands and decorated with smilax and cranations. Mr. and Mrs. Frazer received many pretty and useful gifts and are at home on the Judge Bailey farm in Coffins Grove."

Farm in Family Over 100 Years

The old Baker Inn, four miles northwest of Manchester, Ia., was a terminal on the Dubuque to Independence stage lines, and many pioneers on their way west in search of homes stopped there for food and lodging. The inn is located on the old Baker farm, which has been in the same family over 100 years, and is said to be the only such farm in Delaware county. The house is still occupied by descendants of the first owner.

This rambling barn is located across the highway from the old Baker Inn, northwest of Manchester. It was raised on July 4, 1849, and is constructed of hand-hewn logs, many of them pegged together with wood. The boards are secured by old fashioned square nails. The barn is still in use, but its condition has become such that it will be razed when materials for a new one are available. No doubt, much of the material in the old structure will be used in the new.

Manchester, Ia.—Special: The old Henry Baker farm of some 500 acres, in Coffin's Grove township, four miles northwest of Manchester, has remained in the same family over 100 years, and is said to be the only farm in Delaware county with that record.

The farm is now owned by Mrs. Edward Kuhlman, of Manchester, and her sister, Mrs. David Owen, Iowa City.

The original plat to the prairie land, drawn up long before Manchester was established, was taken up by Mrs. Kuhlman's great grandfather, Henry Baker, in 1841. Baker, one of the first settlers in this section, added parcels to his purchase until it finally totalled some 600 acres.

The farm later became the property of Baker's daughter, the late Mrs. A. J. Hershey. At her death, Mrs. Will Evans, mother of Mrs. Kuhlman and Mrs. Owen, became the heir to the property, and following her passing, the farm reverted to the daughters mentioned.

Home an Inn

The old brick house was the inn on the stagecoach line from Dubuque through Manchester to Independence, and its three stories were often filled to capacity as the pioneers were passing through this section on their way to find homes. Walnut and other hardwood was used liberally in its construction.

The old residence, still in a good state of repair, was equipped with three fireplaces, which are still intact. In the kitchen, a mammoth brick oven was installed in one wall in which an entire hog could be roasted at a time.

A rambling barn, across the highway from the old brick dwelling, still stands and is in service, although the Kuhlman's plan to replace it with a new structure when material is available. The old barn is constructed of hand-hewn logs, many of them pegged together with wood, and the boards secured by old-fashioned square nails. The barn was raised on July 4, 1849, and is 130 feet long.

Old Cemetery

A building housing stagecoaches was located close to the old brick tavern, but it was dismantled a few years ago.

Henry Baker's father-in-law, Clement J. Coffin, preceded Baker to the Coffin's Grove vicinity. He came about 1840, and at that time was located farther west than any family in Iowa.

Coffin's body lies buried in a little country cemetery near the Baker farm, said to have been the first free public cemetery in Delaware county. Tradition says it was first established across the road from its present site. Coffin reserved the center section of the cemetery, and a tombstone to his memory reveals that his death occurred July 28, 1867. He was born Aug. 25, 1795, at Edgarton, Martha's Vineyard, Mass. Numerous markers in the old cemetery bear inscriptions dating back to 1840, when burials were first made there.

Other Old Houses

Several of the original houses, erected some 90 years ago in Coffin's Grove township, are still in good repair. One of these, known as the Charles Walston farm, was the birthplace of Frank Sullivan, of Masonville. He will be 90 years old within a few days. The home was erected by Mr. Sullivan's father, the late Aaron Sullivan. Another is the Harvey Minkler house, and the old Clement Coffin house, the latter being used for storage during recent years. Only two houses were located in Coffin's Grove township when Mr. Baker located there.

Baker, Coffin, and Joel Bailey surveyed the trail for the early day stagecoach line from Dubuque through Bailey's Ford, six miles southeast of Manchester, on to Baker's, here, and then to Independence.

Mrs. Sarah Huftalen, Manchester, whose mother's niece assisted Mr. Baker at the latter's inn, following the death of his wife, Friday afternoon told about the early day activities at the former inn.

"Mr. Baker's inn was a lively place in early days, I am told. Baker, who became well-to-do, was a justice of the peace, among other things, and his inn was also used for marriages and legal actions," she said.

"Emigrants, traveling in covered wagons in search of homes, would stop at the Baker inn in great numbers, and it was not unusual for 80 travelers to stop at a time. Some drove teams of oxen, others brought their cattle with them, and they stopped at Baker's inn in droves for supper, lodging, and breakfast on their trek westward.

"Mother said it was not unusual to serve 70 guests at a meal.

"Annual hunting parties attracted as many as 200 persons at a time to the Baker territory, from where they would start hunting wild prairie chickens, many of which were served at the Baker inn. Bear and deer were plentiful in those early days."

The old inn attracts many visitors whose ancestors were familiar with the activities at the former stagecoach headquarters.

HENRY BAKER, Biographical

From History of Delaware County and Buchanan Counties, Iowa, By F.A. Batty and Company, 1890. Biographical Souvenir."

Henry Baker, Esq., has been a resident of Delaware County nearly 50 years; one of the men whose industry and enterprise made the county what it is. He comes of good old New England stock ancestry.... He was born in Rensselaer County, N.Y., Feb<sup>y</sup> 20 1814, eldest child of eleven children, -four girls and seven boys.

The father, Jacob Baker, was a native of Rensselaer County and was born in the year 1789. His principal occupation was farming, and to a considerable extent followed the lumber business, building and equipping two saw mills which he operated for a time. He was an early pioneer settler of Michigan and was also a soldier in the War of 1812. He died after an active and useful life at the age of 47 years.

The paternal grandfather, Nathaniel Baker was a native of New York State and a farmer by occupation. He lived a long and useful life, dying at the age of 75.

Of the paternal great grandfather little is known, but it is supposed that either he or the one preceding him came originally from England.

The mother of the subject of this notice, Emily Garlick, was a native of Connecticut and was born in 1794. She was a kind, industrious indulgent parent and reared her family of eleven children in the belief that honesty and industry were prerequisite to a successful life. She died in 1844 at the age of fifty years.

The maternal grandfather and grandmother were Henry and Elizabeth (Terry) Garlick both of Connecticut. The former was born 1765, a farmer, and died 1835 at the age of three score and ten. The latter lived to the age of 75 years. The maternal ancestry is also supposed to have come originally from England.

Henry, the subject of this biographical memoir moved with his parents when he was three years of age to Oneida County, N.Y. where he resided till nine years of age when his father inspired by a desire to come west and grow up with the country, moved to Oakland County, Michigan at the time called the Western Frontier.

There the older Baker purchased Government land 18 miles from the present City of Detroit and on this the family settled. Here occurred the first pioneer experience of our subject. He lived with his parents in Oakland County until 20 years of age; "clearings," cultivating in summer and going to the old log school house in winter. In 1834 the family again changed locations, this time settling in Lenawee County, Michigan, near where Morenci now stands. Henry served as guide for new comers at one dollar per day and was instrumental in selling most of the land. He also operated a saw mill which his father had built on Bean Creek for several years. Here Mr. Baker met and married on June 2 1840 Miss Elizabeth Coffin.

Soon after the marriage the parents of Mrs. Baker emigrated to Delaware County, Iowa to what is now Coffins Grove. In May 1841 Mr and Mrs Baker set out in a covered wagon and arrived early in June 1841; purchased 80 acres of land at $1/25 of Government land, He built a log cabin 12ft by 12ft on the bank of the creek. There were only two families besides himself in Coffins Grove Township. In the fall of 1841 he built a one and a half story log house 16ft by 22ft.

In 1845 he woned 200 acres of land and so continued purchasing until he owned 712 acres ,200 of which is native timber. He now owns 572 acres. His lands were purchased direct from the government. In 1850 he built the main part of the large barn and in 1856 he built the handsome brick dwelling. The barn was a frame barn.

In 1868 in the summer while mowing the horses ran away and threw him into the machine which mangled his right hand and which had to be amputated. wo subsequent operations were necessary and the arm was removed to just below the elbow. (He would drive six horses abreast on an improvised drag whēich he made by joing three common drags together he holding the lines tied together and so wrapped around his elbow and guided them with his left hand.S.G.H.)

Mr.Baker was a successful stock grower,shipping to Chicago.

The congenial union of Mr. and Mrs.Baker resulted in the birth of four children,only one of whom is now living.;the full list being: Edward Jacob,died at the age of 4 yrs and 7 mos.;Julia Adelaide died at the age of 2 yrs and 3 mos..and Susan died at the age of 3 yrs 4 mos. Susan Adelaide,the only child now living was born Jan.7 1849 and is the wife of Albert J.Hersey.(Susan that died was drwoned in the creek behind the log house when washing her dollies clothes she fell in face down,- shallow water.S.G.H.)

The wife andmother,Elizabeth Coffin was a native of Willimasburg, Mass.and was born in 1816. She died Dec 15 1859,at the age of 43 yrs.

In Coffins Grove, Delaware County, Iowa.

Henry Baker settled on Section 22 in 1841. There were but three families in the Twonship at the time. He married Elizabeth Williams Coffin, in Michigan in 1840, she the daughter of Judge Clement C. Coffin. They arrived in early June and purchased 80 acres of land from the Government and built a log house thereon 12ft by 12 ft. Deer, elk, and bear were plentiful. The Winnebago Indians were just north of him. In the fall of 1841 he built a 1 1/2 story house 16ft by 20ft. This stood on the bank of the creek where the barn now stands. The family occupied this house for a number of years. In 1845 he purchased 400 acres of land and so continued until he owned 700 acres; two hundred being timber land. In 1856 he built the large brick inn, and a few years previous to this he built the large frame barn. he hauled the material from Dubuque fifty miles distant. Henry Baker, Joel Bailey and Clement Coffin laid out the stage road from Delhi to Coffins and Baker's residences in Coffins Grove twonship. Others came early to this section and who were: Aaron Sullivan, 1844; Section 28. Oscar Wellman, 1852 Section 31; Frank Smith, 1853; Harvey Minkler in 1853. In 1854 a log school house was built on the Henry Baker farm across the road and a few rods west of the dwelling house Inn. No. 1, No 2, No 3, No 5 were built schools.

SURGICAL OPERATION, - Last Saturday afternoon we witnessed a difficult job of surgery in the Office of Acres, Morse and Lanning. It will be remembered that Mr. Henry Baker of Coffin's Grove, last fall received a severe kick in the face from a horse cutting through the cheek and breaking off a piece of the jaw bone. The wound was dressed at the time, and some small pieces of bone extracted, but it healed slowly and left an aperture through which he could breathe. His face has ever been a painful (presented) appearance, Dr. Lanning, after administering ether, proceeded to cut through the length of the scar and detached the flesh where it had fastened itself to the jaw in healing up. After this the fresh cut was sewed up, and, absurd as it may seem, his face looked better than we have seen it since the accident. The patient is doing well.

43 From an old clipping

"SURPRISE PARTY, -Mr. Henry Baker, of Coffins Grove township, reached his 69th birthday Feb 20 (Monday) . Having this in mind, a party of friends and neighbors about 40 in number assembled at his comfortable house that evening. and proceeded to still make themselves more comfortable. They presented Mr. Baker with a box of choice cigars, J.B. Smith read, "A Plea for the men who Smoke," That was printed in last week's Democrat. A bountiful supper of oysters and other 'fixins' was disposed of and prepared and disposed of and one who was there assures us that they had a jolly good time. Mr. Baker is one of the best men in Delaware County and one who deserves friends and knows how to enjoy their society. Wednesday night a company of young people of about the same number paid him a visit, and if all his friends visit him, in this way, thrity or forty at a time, it will take him the best part of this year to get through the roll."

HENRY BAKER

The passing of Henry Baker whose death occurred last Friday, June 16 1899, removes from this county one of the oldest settlers, one who had for more than fifty-eight years been identified with its growth and prosperity. He was a man of sterling integrity, generous, public spirited, and bore well his part in every relation in life.

He was born in Rensselaer County, N.Y. on the 20th of February 1814. When he was three years old his parents moved to Oneida County, N.Y. where he remained six years and then moved overland to Oakland County Michigan, at that time, 1823, considered the western frontier. In 1834 he, with his parents again changed locations, settling this time in Lenawee County, Michigan, near where the town of Morenci now stands. Here it was here that he met, and on June 10 1840 married Miss Elizabeth Coffin, to which event is probably attributed the fact of his coming to this county, for soon after his marriage his wife's parents, Judge and Mrs. Clement Coffin, came and settled in what is now known as Coffins Grove, and from whom the township takes its name.

Being well pleased with their new home, Judge Clement C. Coffin wrote to Mr. Baker of its advantages, and in May of the following year (1841) Mr. and Mrs. Baker set out in a covered wagon with the view of seeing the new country and locating here if it pleased them. They were pleased with it and Mr. Baker at once purchased eighty acres of government land on which he built a log cabin 12ft by 12ft for temporary use, and in the fall of that year erected a story and a half log house 16ft by 22 ft, which they occupied as a home until 1856 when the fine brick residence on his present large farm was built.

There were but two families living in what is now Coffins Grove Township when Mr. and Mrs. Baker settled there. Wild game was plentiful, and for several years Indians were frequent visitors to the new settlement.

Mrs. Baker died in 1859 at the age of forty-three years. Of the four children born to them, but one is now living, Mrs. A. J. Hersey, of Coffins Grove, with whom her father was living at the time of his demise, and had been for some time.

Mr. Baker was one of the first Commissioners of the county, held the office of Justice of Peace for fourteen years and served in other minor offices.

The funeral services were held Sunday at his late residence, Rev. Amos Crum of Webster City, officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Coffins Grove Cemetery."

DIED

In Coffins Grove, Dec 15th 1859, Eliazbeth (Williams) Coffin, wife of Henry Baker, and the oldest daughter of Clement C. and Susan Coffin; in the 42nd year of her age.

The deceased was born in Northampton, Mass. When she was 17 years old her father removed with his family to Michigan, where she married and the following year, 1841, emigrated to Iowa. She was, therefore one of the early settlers of this State, widely known and highly esteemed. Ever ready to sympathize with the afflicted and assist those less favored than herself; believing in the injunction, "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth," whatsoever she found to do, was done with a ready hand and a willing mind.

Conscious of approaching death, she called her family and friends one by one, to her bedside, - kissed them, bade them farewell, told them she willingly resigned to the world and its pleasures, and that death was no terror.

After extreme suffering, she passed away to the "better land", leaving her husband and little daughter (her three eldest children having preceded her to the spirit world) to mourn her unspeakable loss.

We laid her gently to her rest;

Folded her pale hands on her breast;

From her brow so cold

And marble fair--

Softly parted the soft brown hair;

And looked our last upon her.

We bore her gently to her rest, -

And gently heaped the grassy sod,

And left her body to the dust, -

Her spirit to her God,"

NOTE The obituary was in the Delaware County Journal, Wed, March 21st 1860, J.L. McCreery, Editor, Delhi, Iowa. It was in the Dubuque Herald.

After an extended illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, Mrs. Susan Hersey, wife of A.J. Hersey, passed away yesterday morning at her home in Coffin's Grove township, aged fifty-three years. Mrs. Hersey was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, pioneer residents of Delaware County, they having settled in Coffin's Grove township in June 1841, sixty-one years ago. She was born in that township January 7th 1849. The greater portion of her life she resided in Coffin's Grove township, but after her marriage she and her husband spent several years in the State of Kansas. She was united in marriage to A.J. Hersey, August 15 1867. A year ago last March she was first taken ill. During her illness the best and most skilled of physicians, both of this county and Chicago, employed to alleviate her sufferings and stay the progress of the disease, but all was unavailing, and she passed away yesterday morning after having received every care and attention that kind and loving hands and medical skill could bestow upon her. She leaves to mourn her death a devoted husband and four children--two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Ada Evans of Coffin's Grove, Baker Hersey of Bailey's Ford, Mrs. Corry Frazer of this city, and Clifford Hersey of Davenport, Washington, to whom is extended the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Hersey was a woman beloved by all who knew her, and her death is keenly mourned by her host of friends. The funeral will be held tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at two o'clock, from the family residence in Coffin's Grove township, Rev. H.W. Tuttle of this city will officiate,

COFFINS GROVE CEMETERY

This cemetery is situated about 4 1/2 miles northwest of Manchester, Iowa, in Delaware County. It is in the Township of Coffin's Grove. It is on the original Henry Baker farm the most of the seven-hundred acres of which were purchased from the United States Government. Mr. Baker began by purchasing 80 acres in 1841 soon after his arrival from Michigan in June of that year. Two of the oldest little children of Henry Baker and his wife, Miss Elizabeth Coffin died in 1846 and another in 1849. They were buried about a half mile east of the large brick inn which was erected in 1856. Mrs. Baker died in January 1859 and was buried beside her children. Her father, Judge Clement C. Coffin, and for whom the township, grove and creek were named, and his wife passed away and were also buried near.

The Coffins Grove Cemetery Company was organized in 1869 and Mr. Baker then deeded two acres for cemetery purposes. This tract is 330 feet by 265 feet. It has a wide driveway through the center running North and South; and another driveway encircles the lots. There are fifteen tiers from north to south and twenty-three from East to West or rather it is the other way for the frontage next the road is the longer way, I believe. The lots are eight by sixteen feet. Those of the Bakers and Coffins are on the east side of the center driveway. There is a very tall and shapely obelisk monument on the Coffin lot that is surrounded by small white obelisks that are joined together by a heavy black iron chain.

The Society has recently beautified the grounds by felling some scraggly and broken trees; placed a good woven wire fence around the three sides adjoining the farm fields; cutting the weeds and coars grass; and painting the ornamental iron fence at the front black. They also replaced over forty of the stones that had fallen down. The Henry Baker Inn is plainly visible at the west and the old Coffin place is a short distance farther on west.

AID A PIONEER CEMETERY

Residents of Coffins grove township and all others interested by virtue of relationship in preservation of the pioneer cemetery immediately east of the old Baker house in that township are invited to a meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Ed Kuhlman in this city on Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock when plans will be discussed for the improvement of the last resting place of many of the first settlers of this part of the county. Election of officers will be held at this meeting.

In that cemetery lies the dust of Delaware County's first Judge, the late Clement C. Coffin, and the mortal remains of pioneers who broke the virgin sod and reared their families amid unspeakable hardships and privations. They deserve not only the grateful memory of the community but decent and appropriate care of their resting places. There is no more melancholy sight than a neglected graveyard whose abandoned condition bespeaks utter thoughtlessness and lack of gratitude on the part of succeeding generations. Unhappily there are many such. We hope the good folk of Coffins Grove will not permit the cemetery where lie the bones of so many of their forbears to enter that category.

Benjamin D. Osborn apportioned out the daily supplies to Mary each morning; so much tea, sugar, flour etc and no more. He kept everything under lock and key. It was also said that the heirs tried to break his will; that he left his entire estate, except one dollar to each of his own children, to his oldest grandson, Benjamin Franklin Hellom and who squandered it all.

Benjamin wore a stove-pipe hat and went to town and elsewhere often. One day Mary left him in a hurry. She had even taken the tacks out of the carpets. They had thirteen children, only four living to maturity and these died young.

After Ida's husband, Frank Hellom, died she took her children and went to her mother's in St. Louis, Michigan, to live. George Osborn lived in Dakota. Benjamin D. Osborn married second a Mrs Edwards.

In a letter from Mary Osborn, January 29 1862, she wrote of her son, Horace who died from the wound received in the war. "Horace died in an Army Hospital in Washington, D.C. He was so poor that the bones came through the flesh. He was sick seven weeks; was taken sick after entering the war and was wounded. Would have had the funeral sermon next Sunday if it had not been for the smallpox. Horace could get no letters from home and when George read Edna's and Henry's letters to him, tears came into his eyes. George got his discharge and came home."

NOTE: Russell Farmer married Thankful Brown and they had a son William Farmer b. July 7 1839 at Ontario, Mich. They were m there.

Letters from Members of the Baker Family

May 20 1940, Huntington, Indiana. from Eugene Baker to Mrs. Edessa Grissom 340 Etna Ave., 318 Roddolph St.
Northville, Mich.

Dera Edessa: I was pleased to receive your letter of April. 3rd. I realize I have been slow in answering it as well as several other letters that I have received since the first of the year, for with one brief exception, this will be the first letter I have written since last December. I had an operation on Dec 30 last at the Methodist Hospital in Ft Wayne which, of course, incapacitated me for letter writing for some time. Was in the hospital two days over five weeks. Very gradually I have been getting back to the physical condition that was normal with me previous to the operation.

I planted our little garden as usual and I helped the county treasurer on the books during the rush of tax collecting, -which ended last Thursday. Eva is very well. She took the assessment in our part of the city this spring, the sixth year that she has done taht. Just now she is cleaning house.

Regarding the history of the members of our family about which you enquire, I can give you little infirmation.

Jacob Baker and his wife, Emily Garlick, were born and raised in Mass. Their older children were born there but in what part of Mass. I do not know. He was born in 1789. Whetehr any members of their families had a part in the Rev. War I do not know, but it is entirely possible. That they were in Mass. at that early date makes it probable that they were of Puritan or Pilgrim stockancestry and certainly English. I have observed traits in my father's family which made me think they were of Puritan stock. Jacob Baker and his family left Mass. probably in 1820-or 22. They tarried for a time in N.Y. state near Albany and then pushed on to Michigan. In 1824 Jacob Baker purchased land from the Government in Franklin Twp., Oakland Co., It was on a stream. I believe the River Ronge. There he built a dam and a mill. Your grand father, grand mother, Uncle Milford, Aunt Em and I visited the site in 1924 and the owner of the land showed us the abstract of title to his land which gave the dates when Jacob Baker acquired and sold the land. It was while the family lived there that your great grandfather, Mathaniel Horace Baker was born March 2nd 1826. In those years Mass was fast developing as a manufacturing state. She had developed her waterpower and as steam power was practically unknown water power was very valuable. Whetehr Jacob Baker had any interest in water power or manufacturing in Mass. I do not know but it was evidently for the purpose of acquiring water power rights in a new country that he came to Michigan.

Jacob Baker sold his mill property in Oakland Co., in the fall of 1832³ or early in 1834 and started out in the wilderness southwest from Detroit to find and acquire another mill site. He went to Monroe, thence west along the Raisin River, but every desireable site on that river had been taken. From Adrian he struck southwest along a new road that had just been opened up to a point on the Tiffin River or Bean Creek where Canandaigua village was afterwards located. Going south from there on the stream he finally found a site and returning to Monroe where the U.S. Land Office was located purchased from the Government the quarter section of land which included that part of the stream which he wished to acquire. Very soon the family were on their way to their new home in the wilderness. They were accompanied by Horace Garlick, s brother of Emily Baker, and his wife, and Arnold Coomer. Horace Garlick acquired the quarter section of land adjoining the Baker land on the west but over the line in Medina Twp. Arnold Coomer at that time unmarried, bought a farm in the NE part of what was later Morenci Village. Arnold Coomer later related that there were many Indians still in that section and that they helped roll up the logs for the first cabin on the Baker farm. For the last 4 1/2 miles of their journey they had made their way through the woods, around the swamps, and by fording streams.

Where no team had ever been before been driven. Theirs was the first cabin in that immediate vicinity. Soon other land seekers from the east came to the Baker home and Jacob Baker acted as guide for many of them as they selected sites for future homes. The most of the land in that neighborhood was taken by New England and New York state people. By 1837 practically ~~the~~ the whole of Seneca and Medina Townships had been entered and all through the woods cabins had been built and the new settlers were busily engaged in clearing the land. In that year Jacob Baker constructed a dam on his land and built a saw mill. In September just as the mill was completed he was kicked by a horse and killed. He was buried in the old cemetery in the north part of what is now Morenci, the first person to be buried there. When I was a boy an old man told me that the passing of Jacob Baker was considered a real loss to the community which he had helped to establish.

After his death his widow sold the mill but retained the farm. There she built the frame house that still stands, -about 1840. The mill was still being operated when I was young, -as a sawmill and feed was ground there, but ceased to operate probably about 1890. Emily Baker died in 1848 and was buried beside her husband. Later your great grandfather bought the shares of the other heirs in the farm and it was there that your grandfather was born in 1859 and reared. I cannot tell you the names of parents of either Jacob Baker or Emily Garlick. Emily Garlick's mother came to southern Michigan and lived in her old age with her and with Susan her son Horace. I presume she was buried in the old Morenci cemetery but am not sure. She was still alive after my father and my mother were married, -often visited them--and my mother thought she was a fine old lady.

Early in the year following the settlement by Jacob Baker in Seneca Twp. James H. Sweeney and his young wife, who had been Charity Neal, came to the new settlement. Soon after their arrival a girl baby--your great grandmother--was born to them April 5 1835. They soon acquired 40 acres in the north part of what was to become the Village of Morenci, a half mile south of the Baker farm and later 40 acres which cornered that 40 to the NE. He was a recent graduate of a N.Y. State Medical College and practiced his profession in his adopted community until his death in 1871. In 1845 he was elected to the lower House of the Michigan State Legislature but served only one term. I have always understood that he was a highly respected member of his community. He had a brother who practiced medicine for many years at Dearborn near where you live. Another brother John settled on a farm a mile and a half west of the Baker farm in Lenawee Co., he died in the late 1880's in Morenci. John had two daughters and one son, Henry, who had a son, Frank, who was the father of Donald Sweeney, a practicing attorney in Detroit and formerly president of one of the banks of Detroit which failed during the financial panic of 1933. Another brother, of James H. Sweeney was Nelson, who owned a section of land in the same county with Edwardsville, Ill. and another brother who lived and died in Monroe county Michigan. The parents came from Ireland. I believe they lived in N.Y. state for a time but passed their latter days and were buried in Monroe County, -near Dundee, I believe but am not quite sure.

I know little of the Neals. They lived in Seneca County, N.Y. I believe your Uncle John had a quite complete knowledge of their history. Possibly he made a record of what he learned and that George Neal can give you more information regarding the family than can anyone else.

I congratulate your wisdom in beginning while comparatively young to look up your family history. I have been sorry many times that I did not take an interest in such matters while I was young and there were many old people who could have told me many things interesting facts about my father's and mother's people. Such facts should be put in writing, -otherwise we are likely to forget. If there's any thing more that you knew to learn about our people and think I might have a knowledge of it, do not hesitate to write and ask me and I will be pleased to answer if I can,. We will be glad to have you visit us when you make your contemplated trip to Indiana this summer.

Your Uncle, Eugene H. Baker.

NOTE: The Jacob Baker and Emily (Garlick) Baker family were resident in Schodack Twp., Rensselaer County, N.Y. and their two oldest children were born there; Henry Baker, b. Feb 20 1814 and Sarah Baker, born Feb 6 1816. In 1817 the Jacob Baker family moved to Camden, Oneida Co., N.Y., and in 1823 to Franklin Twp., Oakland Co., Michigan. In 1834 they moved to Morenci, Lenawee Co., Michigan.

Elizabeth (Terrill) Garlick, mother of Horace Garlick lived with her son about ten years preceding her death; she lies buried in the old Morenci cemetery, Her husband Henry Garlick lies buried in McKean Co., Pa. It was after his death that she came to live with her son, Horace and family near the Baker settlement.

GEORGE BAKER IS DEAD FOLLOWING ILLNESS OF YEAR

Was Active Citizen of Town for Nearly Quarter of Century

Following an illness of over a year's duration, George H. Baker, aged 69 Yrs who for the past eight years had served as justice of the peace died at his home in this place Monday evening shortly after 8 o'clock.

Mr. Baker was taken ill late in the winter of 1927 and in the hope of recovering his health he went to the University at Ann Arbor but the Physicians there were unable to do anything for him. He returned to his home in Northville and for a time was about the streets, but his condition became gradually worse, and for many months previous to his death was confined to his bed.

He was conscious a part of the time during the past few days, and recognized and spoke to members of the family the day before he died.

Mr. Baker during the 25 years he has resided in Northville took an active part in community affairs, always working for what he believed to be the good of the community. He had a wide circle of friends who mourn his passing with his family.

He was born in Morenci, Michigan, where his parents were among the pioneer settlers of that section. He spent the early part of his life there. It was 49 years ago when he married Miss Alice Neal of the same place. Soon after their marriage they moved to Elsie in Clinton County where he went into the Meat Market business and for a number of years conducted a very successful mercantile place.

In 1903 he sold his market and moved to Northville. During the early part of his residence here he spent considerable time traveling for the National Fireproofing Company. It was nine or ten years ago when he gave up active work and was elected justice of the peace, an office he filled with credit to himself and to the community.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Baker, two children, Mrs. Lena Daggett and Don Baker, a son of Detroit survive. Mrs. Daggett has remained constantly at the bedside of her father during his entire illness.

Milford Baker, a brother, resides in Northville. Mrs. Addie Neal and Mrs. Charity Truesdale, sisters, both reside in Orion, and another brother, Eugene Baker, lives in Huntington, Indiana. There are also three grandchildren who survive. Postmaster F. S. Neal is Mrs. Baker's brother.

The funeral was held from the home Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Frank P. Knowles and Rev. Wm. Richards officiating. Burial was made in the Rural Hill Cemetery."

Alice D. Baker

Mrs. Alice D. Baker passed away at her home in Northville, January 27th 1935. Alice D. Neal was born Sept. 22 1854 in Seneca Co., N.Y. Miss Neal came to Michigan at the age of 22. Two years later she was united in marriage to George H. Baker of Morenci, Michigan. To this union two children were born, Mrs. Lena Daggett and Donald H. Baker. Mrs. Daggett made her home with her parents and helped in the care of her father who passed away April 9th 1928, after a lingering illness. Since his death she and her mother have been constant companions.

Donald H. Baker and wife, Harriet, of Lansing, were also at her bedside during the last days of her illness.

Besides the two children she is survived by five grand children and two great grand children. Mrs. Baker was the eldest of three children, sister of the late John A. Neal, publisher of the Orion Review, and the late Frank S. Neal of the Northville Record.

Mrs. Baker was a quiet home maker, not active socially, but very devoted to her immediate family and especially fond of her two nephews, Geo. H. Neal of Lake Orion and Warren Neal. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was ready with a helping hand whenever needed until failing health prevented outside activity.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker were a most devoted husband and wife. Her deep sorrow and loneliness after he passed away were contributing factors to the quiet seclusion which she preferred during her declining years.

Services were held at the home on January 29 1935 with the Rev. H.G. Whitefield officiating. Interment was in the family lot in the Rural Hill Cemetery.

Further Notes on the Nathaniel Horace Baker Family

From the Morenci Observer, September 29th 1877.

The suit of C.S.Luce, assignee of M.D.Richardson & Co., against Horace Baker, which was set down for trial on Tuesday last was adjourned two weeks. It seems that Mr. Baker was one of the patrons of the Morenci cheese factory last year and was paid in installments, the estimated value of the milk delivered, which Mr. Richardson claims was in excess of what was actually due at the close of the season, and as Mr. Baker supposed he was only getting his pay, and scarcely that, refused to refund the balance claimed to be due Mr. Richardson—hence the suit.

As there are several other patrons in the same fix as Mr. Baker, this is regarded as a test case of the whole, and it will be hotly contested to the bitter end as all parties are "well healed." Able council has been procured and the case will be watched with eager interest to the final termination.

" Raymond is in the service of the Army, is in England. He is a mechanic & is technical sergeant and has lots to do.
Robert went last March 25 1943; first to Camp Perry, Ohio; for a week. Then to Camp Wallace in Texas; from there to Kansas City, Mo., to study in a radio school. After that he was finished he was sent to North Carolina to finish up. He was 100% in all. He was home for a week; was here Nov 11th to see me. My, but he looks fine and he is just as good as he looks."
NOTE: Raymond and Robert are her grandsons. She makes her home with one of her children in the summer and with the other in the winter; hence the two addresses. She wrote her letter at one and posted it at the other as she was changing for winter months.

"THE PHRENOLOGICAL CHARACTER OF JACOB BAKER"
As given by D.Bassett, March 17th 1845

This is a rather singular and notional child, -his self-esteem is low, and love of appreciation, or praise, is very great; and he is timid and bashful except when praised, or flushed with the hope of applause, ---

His hope is very large, which enlivens his feelings in the expectation of praise or success in his desires, in consequence of which he many times holds up his head, when otherwise he would hang his head down and hardly look another in the face or speak; but his real disposition is timid and bashful.

He is not a stubborn child, but he is not easily persuaded, on account of his strong desires and notions. He is keenly alive to the frowns & smiles of others, has a cheerful and sociable disposition, he is a good honest boy by nature, but no one can often extort an answer from him in anything in which he has done wrong.

He is a great prattler. He has a great amount of mirthful feeling, and talks in a mirthful and cunning manner. He has not much independence of mind and self-confidence, but is apt to hang down his head.

His love for pets and animals is strong, and his love for company and friends is great, and he generally wants to be in company of his mother.

He has good reasoning faculties, and good memory of facts, events and transactions. He is apt to follow the example of others, speaks as he hears them speak, and acts as he sees them act.

He is not easily deceived, is quick to apprehend and perceive the business and movements of others, -he has some severity but he is more easily grieved than provoked. There is a great lack in his feelings of benevolence, independence of mind and firmness of purpose and action, which needs to be cultivated. He generally keeps and takes care of pennies and things of his own."
